BROTHER TO KENTUCKY BEAU WINS DAISY STAKES AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

Was Highly Tried as Yearling-Sir John Johns Surprises New Yorkers by Successfully Going Mile in Sheepshead Bay Selling Stakes.

New York, June 29.—Although today's card was unusually light for a Sheepshead Bay offering, some interesting racing resulted. Nothing could surpass as a racing spectacle the long and tremendous closing struggle between the eather seven starters comprising the field in the first race. It was one of the most thrilling contests seen this season. Midway down the stretch all of the seven contest, and the stretch and the stretch

ARNFRIED UPWARD WINS GERMAN DERBY.

Hamburg, Germany, June 29.—The German Derby as run here Sunday. After a most exciting contest was won by the royal Graditz Stud's colt. Arn-ded Upward, which beat the Austrian hope, Herr Merch's Kahlenberg, a short head. Strassvoget, also owned by the royal Graditz Strassvoget, also owned by the royal Graditz Strassvoget, was third. He had been declared to win, while Arnfried Upward was only run as pacemaker. Here Weinberg's Ferror, ridden by Reiff, and strongly supported, was nowhere. JENNINGS TO TRAIN ROSS HORSES.

New York, June 29.—Walter Jennings has agreed to train a string of borses for his friend. Samuel Ross, Including Tom Melton, Rosshampton, The Speaker and Daisy C. The horses have arrived from washington, where they have been quartered since the close of the Pimlico meeting. Jennings had disposed of most of his own horses with the idea of taking things rather easy this summer and it was only out of personal regard for Mr. Ross that he consented to take the horses in charge.

LOTUS EATER RETIRED TO THE STUD.

Lotus Eater, one of Irving H. Wheatcroft's earliest acquisitions in the thoroughbred line, has arrived at Victoria, B. C., and will immediately enter the stud at St. James Island. Lotus Eater was a frequent winner during his four seasons in training and retires with a record of nearly $25,000 to his credit in purses. Here is the record of the horse's racing career:

Every metropolitan racing association was represented and applied for dates, including William Engeman of the Brighton Beach Association. It is said that Mr. Engeman's application is regarded with disfavor and will be turned down. From an authoritative source it is learned that the Brighton Beach Association is still indebted to horsemen and others to the extent of $40,000. The Brighton track is partially dismantled. Fences, stables and field stand have been removed, while the track is considerably cut up and dug up and the steeplechase course wholly obliterated. The grandstand and clubhouse remain intact and the course could probably be made ready to race over by the first of September. William H. Reynolds of the Jamaica track was also on hand with a request for dates for a fall meeting, which will be granted as a matter of course. If any action was taken the fact was not divulged. It is believed that discussion was postponed until the next meeting. It is known that another conference will be held in the immediate future.

New York, June 29.—Sanctus was not as lame as Waterspeed after the Beacon Steeplechase at Sheepshead Bay Saturday, but he limped painfully to the scales and it is possible that he may not race again for some time. Edward Peters, who is training the son of St. Leonards and Harpstchord this season. half expected that Sanctus might fall lame. He was all but hopelessly broken down last fall and it required much hard work to get him to the post at all. Sanctus won two good races, and secured another purse by default at Gravesend, which is about all that could be expected from a steeplechaser with a bowed tendon.

Lexington, Ky., June 29.—Twenty-two thoroughbred yearlings, fourteen the property of the Milistream Stud, seven belonging to Elliot C. Cowdin, and the other the property of W. L. Powers, left here this morning for Sheepshead Bay. They are to be sold July 5. In the consignment were nine sons and daughters of the noted French stallion. Adam, out of the mares Cereta, Purity, Virgin Soil, Grace Gumberts, Shaft, Longshore, Wild Thyme, Disadvantage and Sparkling.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 29.—About 300 of the horses that participated in the recent meeting at the Fair Grounds have left on a special train of forty cars for Butte, where racing will begin July 3. There will be a one-day meeting at Ogden July 5. The racing will begin at 2 o'clock in the aftornoon and will be continued into the evening with the aid of electric lights.

JOE MADDEN'S INJURY SERIOUS.

New York, June 29.—S. C. Hildreth stated today that Joe Madden is probably hopelessly broken down in his off foreleg as the result of having been jumped upon in the early stages of the Tidal Stakes. Mr. Hildreth blames Scoville, on Hilarious, for the rough deal his colt got in that race and declares that the injury was sustained right after the start.

Hamilton, Ont., June 29.—The Barton Steeple-chase was the principal feature of the program offered patrons of the Hamilton Jockey Club this afternoon. It brought out a field of smart jumpers, Braggadocio and Bilberry were added to the race, while several of those carded were withdrawn. The contest was good until the last quarter mile, when Waterway drew away into a long lead to win as he pleased.

The fields in a majority of the races were remarked and furnished keen racing. Produce were matched and furnished keen racing. Produce in winning the second race, established a new track record for a mile by running the distance in 1:334, the previous mark being 1:40, made by Gridforn with ninety-two pounds up. In winning the fifth Rose Queen ran the six furiouss, pulled up. in 1:124, which equaled the track record. Rose Queen sprobably as fast a sprinter as ever raced in Canada. . She is apparently at her best just now and had there been anything in today's race to carry her along she would undoubtedly have run the distance in less than 1:12.

Three favorites won, the successful choices being Short Order, Waterway and Rose Queen. The best contest of the afternoon came with the running of the closing race, in which Cruche d'or and Belle Scott fought it out through the stretch, with the former first at the end by a neck. Several stables are already making preparations to leave for Fort Eric. P. T. Chinn will send his big string down Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. Free Fox. J. Maloney and Mode Nicoll will leave Friday, while J. Dyment and W. Shields will go Saturday morning.

Joseph E. Seagram's Seismic arrived this aftermoon from his owner's farm at Waterloo. He is carded as a starter in the Dominion Plate tomorrow. Hugh Penny received a wire from Dion Kerr this morning asking on what terms he would dispose of the contract he holds on jockey J. Reid. Kerr is supposed to be acting for David Dunlop in the matter.

Seymour Beutler, who is here in charge of the Pinkerton forces, arrested a ticket snatcher yesterday, who is an old timer at the trick. This is the first arrest at the meeting. The Canadian circuit this year has been particularly free from these gentry.

SPORTSMAN GOING IN FOR BREEDING.

New York, June 29.—Charles L. Harrison, ownerof the crack two-year-old, Waldo, did not buy Sun Dance at tife sale of the Whitney stable Saturday,
With any idea that the filly might restable Saturday,
Sun Dance has some speed and she is a good cooker, but Mr. Harrison does not want to race her. He is getting together a stud in Kentucky and wants the mare for breeding purposes. Sun Dance is well bred. She was foaled at Brookdale Farm and is a daughter of Hambárg and Irish Reel. Irish Reel was by Exile, out of Round Dance, by War Dance.
Mr. Harrison's stud already consists of six mares, one of which is a daughter of Ben Holladday and Berriedale. This mare is a half-sister to the successful race horses, Kinleydale and Inflexible. Mr.
Harrison is much attached to racing, and, as betomes a sportsman of the first water, he wants to

KING COBALT SPREAD S A FOOT.

New York. June 29.—King Cobalt, the sprinter that went to Canada last week to fill a stake engagement at Hamilton, will be brought back to New York next week. Grant Hugh Browne sent the black son of Cesarion away in order to convince the Canadians that he was a high-class sprinter. His end was accomplished when King Cobalt defeated Red River, the king-pin of the Canadian sprinting division, in the opening race of the Hamilton meeting. Mr. Browne took some pride in showing at Hamilton that King Cobalt was a good horse, because the son of Cesarion raced poorly in Canada last fair and the northerners set him down as a Coualt will be able to fill means set him down as a Coualt will be able to fill means to the companion of the race in which he met Red River and came out of it quite lame. If he has to pass up his date next a rest. He has demonstrated that he is as good a sprinter as a metropolitan stable can send to the post, and there will be plenty of good racing hereabouts in the fall for a horse of his class,

BLUE BOOK AGAIN IN TRAINING.

New York, June 29.—J. F. Carroll's five-year-old horse, Blue Book, by Handsome—Blue Bloed, is again in training. Blue Book was turned out in New Jersey during the winter mouths, and when taken up recently, looked particularly well for a horse that ran in a paddock for a long period. Trainer Stephen Lawler, who has had the misfortune to lose Gowan and two promising two-year-olds this season, has not asked much of Blue Book in the way of work, but the manner in which the horse takes to his gallops would indicate that he will race as well as ever when it is time to send him to the post.

ELLISON PLANNING TO GO ABROAD:

Hot Springs, Ark., June 29.—C. R. Ellison, whose sale of Royal Tourist, Jacobite and Westbury to G. W. Carmaek, of Cincinnati, a day or two ago marked his retirement from the American turf as an owner of race horses, has been here for several weeks. He announced today that he will leave for Germany shortly. It is likely that he will be will be some horses to carry his colors on the European tracks.

STEEPLECHASING IN FRANCE.

William C. Hayes, Enamoured of Sport, Describes Conditions Under Which it Flourishes.

New York, June 29.—William C. Hayes, who has just returned to America from abroad, is enamoured of the steeplechase sport as it is conducted in France. The French, he avers, are the only people that race the thoroughbred who accord cross-country sport the distinction it deserves. "Nothing is to good," says Mr. Hayes, "to pus chough the field in France. Votaries of the cross-country ame will not school a horse for jumping that he not shown light class. The foremost sportsmen will a flat race worth 8,000 or 10,000 francs one day, and appear in a mirdle race a few days later. Then he goes back to flat racing, and when next we lear of him he is running across country shown in the sum of the sport of the state of the sport of the sport of the position of the year typing to purchase french immors for service in England. He had not succeeded in buying one horse when I left, because Frenchmen owning animals of the kind he sought were unwilling to sell. ceeded in buying one horse when I left, because Frenchmen owning animals of the kind he sought were unwilling to sell. And steeplechasing is so well controlled in France it is becoming more popular every day.

"We Americans made a mistake in racing horses of only fair quality against the best 'chasers of France. It would take the kind of horses we run in stakes of high value to hold their own with animals of the class of the horses that race over the jumps at Anteuil. As everyone who knows anything about American racing is aware, the steeple-chasers we sent to France are only platers. They cannot do better. The only really good American jumper in France is Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.'s Stokes, He is a horse of high speed and courage and he will. I believe, make his mark.

Mr. Hayes has no horses in American ow. His last campaigner was Grandpa which bore his colors to victory in man for the stable of George Suportas. Mr. Hayes, who was a skillful and popular gentleman rider, is killing time just now, but he may be expected ere long to get back into the cross-country game.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The next Epsom Derby is scheduled to be run Wednesday, June 1, 1910.

J. W. Fuller and W. McLemore have shipped their stables from Oklahoma City to Canada.

Pretty Polly's good two-year-old brother, considered by many as the crack colt of the English season, has been named Cock a Hoop. He may have enough quality to survive.

W. M. Rogers has transferred his fast four-year-old chestmit colt, Rialto, by Watercress—Teatro, from the care of Frank Regan to Frank Weir, and the latter will hereafter train the horse on the New

W. H. Schwartz purchased the five-year-old bay gelding. Hancock, by Fatherless—Merry Maid, at Oklahoma City recently. Otilo, a three-year-old chestnut gelding, by Leonid—Prue, has also changed hands at the Oklahoma track, having been sold by W. McLeonor to Annos George.

John Ferris, in explaining the sale of Ed Alvey's Prince Ahmed to H. G. Bedwell for $4,000, is quoted as saying: "I think I got a very good price for the colt, for he is a one-track horse. He can run fast on a pasteboard track, but if it zets mudd yod can't work him. He was in three stakes at Latonia and never got a chance to run in any of them."

W. G. Yanke, who ran up Jupiter Joe at Latonia recently, is in the market to get hold of a good horse. Frank Bain, who is a friend of Yanke, sale yone-ring the run-up: "People who magine that Yanke ran up Jupiter Joe for wence any the same that the race of the price of the property of the recently of give $1.500 and the first purse for him. Yanke has owned some fair horses, the recent ones being Hugh McGowan and I'm Joe."

F. P., Los Angeles, Cal. Race $2647, at Salt Lake City, June 1S, was a selling race. Antara and Dencen could not therefore have been an entry or coupled, and as a matter of fact were not.

J. C., Hamilton, Ont. Although the coupling was erroneous, it seems a matter in which the backer and layer were mutually responsible, and the wager having been accepted it should be paid.

E. T. B., Chicago. Horses of a coupled entry are frequently laid against singly place and show. The decision is one that has invariably been anade in similar cases for years past and stands unaltered.

Winner—Br. g. by Sorcerer—Emma Louise (trained by J. Elute).
Went to post at 3:26. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Billy Bodener, shifted by the soft going, wore Ace of Diamonds down after going and was never in danger thereafter. Ray II. ran a good race and was in close pursuit throughout. Voting came from a long way back in the last quarter and finished with a rush. Ball Hazard closed a big gap and was going fastest at the end. Salinest was interfered with on several occasions. Rickey had no mishaps. Ace of Diamonds seems a fast non-stayer. J. C. Core was practically left at the post. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

FRENCH YEARLINGS BRING HIGH PRICES.

At the recent French sale of yearlings by Gouvernant, Matchbox, Tokto and Con Amore from the Napajedler Stud of A, Baltazzi, the twenty youngsters sold produced an average of $2,506, and a total of $50,120.

sold produced an average of $2,500, and a total of A colt out of Thriftless fell to Captain Horval for $7,800, after some smart bidding. Then came the fillies out of Wilful and Child's bance, secured the fillies out of Wilful and Child's bance, secured $6,000 think $4,000 was sixtened to the filly out of Margit, by Mr. Mauther von Markhof. A bargain was obtained by Mr. N. von Szemere, who gave $4,000 for the filly by Gouvernant, out of Missy Jeannie. Some new buyers were in the market, notably Count Paul' Esterhary, anxious to continue the family tradition of his house, and Count Berchtold, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador to Russia, both of whom are intending to form studs and racing stables.

CONTROVERSY OVER WEIGHT.

Cincinnati O., June 29.—Al Muller was entitled to a five-pound allowance in his race of yesterday, but this was not claimed at the time of entry, called for by the rules. That made his weight 100. Before the program was printed the claim was made and the weight changed to 104. This was objected to and the matter was thereupon referred to Judge Price, who decided that Al Muller must carry 109 pounds, which he did.

MASS CELEBRATED ON RACE TRACK.

Previous to the races at Barronstown race course, County Tipperary, on June 19 (Corpus Christi Day), mass was celebrated at the track. The arrangement was made for the benefit of the Roman Catholics, who, arriving in immense numbers for the races, could not be accommodated in the little church. The celebrant was Canon Ryan, a local priest, and the altar was erected in the press box.
